$2,000 DAMAGES

Asked by Mr. Duke Rudy of This City
From the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Is Represented by Hon. M. J. Hennessey of Augusta.

In the Mason Circuit Court yesterday Mr. Duke Rudy of this city filed suit against the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad for $2000 damages.

The petition in part states that on the 10th day of October, 1916, he purchased from the agent of the road at this place a roundtrip ticket which entitled him to be carried as a passenger on the defendant's passenger train which left Cincinnati a short time after 9 o'clock, p. m., on the 10th day of October to Maysville and that he had paid the proper fare for such ticket; and that on the said date, a few minutes or a very short time before said train was due to leave the Union Depot at Cincinnati he started to board said train for the purpose of taking the said passage on same to said destination and that the agents of the train refused to allow him to board same and ordered him away from the said train and out of that part of the station in which the train was standing and then and there grossly insulted him and abused him by accusing him of being drunk and not in a fit condition to ride on said train and said agents made him leave the train yard and would not let him board or ride on the train.

The plaintiff states that he was not intoxicated or drunk at the time and that he was greatly humiliated, insulted and caused great mental suffering.

and anguish on account of the said wrongful acts of the agents of the defendant. And the plaintiff further states that he was compelled to wait for some time for another train to take him to his destination.

Mr. Rudy asks for $2,000 damages, for his costs expended and all proper relief. He is represented by Hon. M. J. Hennessey of Augusta.

PROGRAM WELL ATTENDED

A large number of visitors attended the program of the Athenaeum and Adelphi Literary Societies in the High School auditorium yesterday afternoon. The movie take-off, a farce comedy, seemed to take best with the audience present. The play was a farce upon "Uncle Tom's Cabin." The parts were well taken and the play elicited much laughter from the audience. The various persons representing the characters did not use any dialogue but acted exactly as in the "silent drama." The announcements were very clever. At the meeting the results of the straw vote taken on various questions earlier in the day. The results were as follows: Hughes—78; Wilson—137; For Woman's Suffrage—96; against—113; for the commission form of government in Mason county—133, against—68; for the use of the Literary Digest in the High School—185, against—18.

MISSION SERVICES

Now Being Conducted in the St. Patrick's Church in This City are Daily Drawing Large Crowds—Interesting Interview.

He who entertains the somewhat prevailing notion that the practice of religion is chiefly, if not alone, among women, should attend the mighty missionary services at the St. Patrick church to be undeceived. We hear of a Go-To-Church-Sunday in which it is desired to "round up" the stay-at-home who are supposed to be chiefly men,—one a year; but not one night but every night of the week and several times during the day large congregations of men are to be seen in attendance at the spacious Catholic edifice, corner Third and Limestone, entering into the minutest detail of religious worship with a whole-souledness truly remarkable in this community.

Being interviewed on the subject of the religious activities of the men of his parish, the beloved pastor of St. Patrick's, Rev. P. M. Jones, to a representative of the Public Ledger said:

"Yes, the attendance of men at the Mission, from its very opening, has been most satisfying. The good millionary fathers from Chicago, engaged in giving the Mission, as well as others, have expressed their edification in holding so many men approaching the Sacraments each day, and at their intense earnestness in everything pertaining to the Mission. Whilst the city slumbers, before day break, large concourses of my people are daily to be found in our church, brought thither by purely religious motives.

No better or more deserving men are to be found anywhere than right here in our city. None more ready to make sacrifices for their religious convictions."

"But, Father Jones," the Ledger man interrogated, "is not this daily outpouring of men at your services extraordinary?"

"Yes," was the ready response: "in mission is a time of extraordinary effort to "line up" with the spirit of the gospel, during which my people in large numbers attend. But in this church, at no time, are we haunted by the specter of the "Empty Pew." At every service throughout the year, especially at the Sunday morning services, the attendee is always representative of the largest and most prosperous congregation in Northeastern

Kentucky."

"Before taking your leave," Father

Jones smilingly added with a cordially distinctively his own: "I must express my gratification at beholding so many of our esteemed citizens not of our faith in attendance at our services, particularly at our evening services. The doctrines of Mother

Church are so much misunderstood that those who seek to set us right us to Catholic teachings are always heartily welcomed at our service. The Church has no doctrine to which it can not and does not gladly invite the closest scrutiny of inquiring minds.

Assure all, through the columns of the Public Ledger, that a cordial welcome is at all times extended."

ADDRESSES MEETING

Mrs. Curry and Bluckerby of the State Board of Health Give Short Talks in the Council Chamber Yesterday Afternoon.

Mrs. Curry and P. E. Bluckerby, of Bowling Green, who are in this city making a sanitary survey of the city, yesterday addressed a meeting of the heads of the various organizations of the city and county interested in health work. Only a small crowd was present but they seemed to be very enthusiastic.

Dr. Curry, the state sanitary engineer, spoke of the work he had done during the day in making the survey. He spoke of a number of the places he had visited, among them being the hog pens in the Sixth Ward. He also spoke of the sewers emptying into the river above the water company's intake. He stated that the burden was on the water company, inasmuch as they were compelled to use more chemicals on account of these sewers. He said that when he returned to Bowling Green he would issue an order to the City Council of this city to abate the nuisance of these sewers and if they did not comply at once with his order he would bring his force of assistants and close the sewers forcibly. He then spoke of the tenement districts of the city to no short length.

Dr. Bluckerby, the state sanitary inspector, explained to the audience the plan of the State Board of Health in giving dollar for dollar for health work in this county. His speech was well received by the audience.

Both men in their talks pled for the co-operation of all of the various organizations interested in health work. Dr. Curry said that the local Board of Health could not win in their hog pen cases unless the citizens of the city were back of the board.

Mr. Wilson As President

When the question of national leadership came before the country four years ago The Daily News strongly advised the Democratic party to make Woodrow Wilson its candidate for President. The arguments persistently advanced on his behalf by this newspaper are known to have contributed in no inconsiderable degree to Mr. Wilson's nomination by the Baltimore convention. In the succeeding campaign The Daily News heartily supported Mr. Wilson's candidacy. Many of his actions as President have received its full approval. However, certain characteristics of this remarkable chief executive of the nation, characteristics clearly revealed by his official course, have led him into actions that appear to The News to be subversive of popular government and even of the foundations of public order and safety. Therefore it believes that the interests of the republic require the retirement of Mr. Wilson from the presidency at the end of his present term of office.

Mr. Wilson is a scholarly egoist, who measures all things by personal standards, which are subject to no modifications other than those resulting from his confirmed policy of opportunism. "Do the easiest thing and make a virtue of it," might be the accepted motto of this eminently plausible President. Having no real advisers and no Cabinet except in name—this was made clear by the resignation of Secretary Garrison—he has felt free to follow his own inclinations at all times. His inclinations have been right in many instances, but he has accomplished much that should prove of lasting value to the nation. Blessed with a safe party majority in each house of Congress throughout the whole period of his administration, and having not an atom of that desirable passion for wise economy which characterized another Democratic President, Grover Cleveland, he has found ways of keeping under his hand a ready instrument for the enactment of such measures as he chose to approve and of slaying measures that were not to his liking. In short, to an extraordinary degree, he has had his way in legislative affairs.

Material success rewards his administration in large part because the great war which has deluged Europe with blood has deluged the United States with prosperity. The Daily News has approved those actions of the President's that tended to uphold against the ruthlessness of war the rights of neutrals and other noncombatants, though many voices now raised for Mr. Wilson were raised not so long ago in shrieks of alarm, voices that prophesied red ruin as a sure result of the President's display of firmness. In the opinion of The Daily News the President in honor and safety could not have done less than he did in dealing with the submarine and other questions, whereas considerations of honor and safety might well have caused him to do more than he did. Because of unprecedented conditions in the foreign field, the President has accomplished no remarkable feat in keeping the nation out of war, though the fact that we are not now at war is the chief boast of his supporters. Yet for more than two years there has been nobody anywhere who could have been persuaded to go to war with us, nearly all of the world's fighting men being locked in a deadly struggle amid the trenches of Europe. The administration's Mexican policy, though it has given us two little inglorious wars, in terminable muddle and serious loss of prestige, has reflected the President's wise determination not to yield an inch to the arrogant demands of the annexationists. It has shed upon the nation no insult save that resulting from the rejection of the elemental sin of blind covetousness.

It was in his method of dealing with the strike threat of the rail road brotherhoods that President Wilson most clearly disclosed his policy of government. That perilous policy of following the line of least resistance is shown here in its perfection. Here also is shown the destructiveness of the form of statesmanship which deals with a crisis by postponing the day of settlement and at the same time, by weakening established safeguards, augmenting the elements of danger contained in it. Confronted by the fact that leaders of certain rail road employers had refused to arbitrate the question of higher wages and had rejected the proffered help of the Federal Board of Mediation and Conciliation, President Wilson chose to assume that the question involved was that of the establishment of the eight-hour day, though the eight-hour day in reality had nothing to do with it. He chose to assume also, without making any effort to prevent that threatened outcome, that a nation-wide strike, tying up rail road transportation from coast to coast, would result speedily unless he secured by law within a few hours a settlement to the liking of the men who had engineered the strike order. Instead of saying to those men, "The nation will not be coerced into passing a law increasing your wages without investigation," he hastened to reward them for first refusing arbitration and then setting their scanty time limit of hours in which Congress might establish by law their minimum demand of a 25 per cent increase in wages, notoriously misbranded by the President the eight-hour law. The nation's chief executive, rejecting all pleas to the contrary, thrust aside the principle of arbitration, thrust aside all questions of right and wrong and yielded to a bare-faced hold-up in derogation of justice and orderly government. To give his action a shadowy excuse he demanded one thing while calling it another thing. A stampeded Congress carried out his orders in jig time.

Here was a shameless, a destructive surrender to a threat of force made with a deliberate purpose by an organized minority. On the part of the President it was at once a display of timidity and craft. It established a precedent both dangerous and humiliating. Throughout the amazing transaction the larger interests of the great unorganized American public counted for nothing. The facts, known and unknown, were ignored. The President employed an easy method of projecting a present definitely into the future, and of gaining profitable friendship for himself while sowing a crop of dragon's teeth for his country, whose interests he was set to guard. This appalling display of unscrupulousness illuminates like a searchlight the character and the thought processes of the chief magistrate of the nation. The American people should take warning from the painful exposure.

In the opinion of The Daily News the safety of the nation and the integrity of its institutions cannot wisely be instructed to President Wilson for another term.—Editorial in The Chicago Daily News, October 25, 1916.

Reasons Why Hughes Should Be Elected

BECAUSE he stands for Protection, Prosperity, Preparedness and Patriotism.
BECAUSE he will not permit partisanship to triumph over Patriotism.
BECAUSE his speech of acceptance expresses his desire to co-operate with labor for its advantage, not to exploit it for his own.
BECAUSE he will command the respect of Europe and Asia and win the friendship of Latin-America.
BECAUSE he will never by proclamation deny the right of Americans to pursue their business in other lands under the protection of the American flag.
BECAUSE he will not repudiate the American flag in any land.
BECAUSE he will not put action into words, but words into action.
BECAUSE, as Theodore Roosevelt well says, he has high sentiments of justice and dignity, is upright and straightforward, is an incontestable master of judicial matters, and always translates his words into deeds.
BECAUSE he is a strong, sure, courageous man, with a clear-cut program before him and with the courage, intelligence and determination to carry it out and bring to our country self-respecting peace and world-wide respect.
BECAUSE as Governor of New York he has already proved that he dared to do the right thing, and is prepared to further do and dare when called into a wider field.
BECAUSE he is not a dreamer and not a quitter.
BECAUSE he is a firm friend of preparedness for the United States and not for preparedness through political expediency.
BECAUSE he will not burden us with war taxes in time of peace.
BECAUSE we need a tariff not founded upon free trade, nor for "revenue only," but to protect American labor and American industry from the deadly competition of the foreigner.
BECAUSE he is a red-blooded American. His policy will be "America first, America efficient."
BECAUSE he can be depended upon to keep platform pledges.
BECAUSE he will protect this country against being flooded with the cheap manufactures of Europe after the war.
BECAUSE he is the chosen head of a party which has long fathered all great constructive legislation which experience has proved to be wise and which has invariably been opposed by the Democratic party.
BECAUSE a business man is going to be especially needed in the next few years. In consequence of the European war a tremendous readjustment of the world's business is ahead. The United States must be economically prepared. It must not, as now, be left defenseless. It must not have a President with an untrained business mind, ever changing. Mr. Hughes made a remarkable record as a business Governor of New York. He has extraordinary ability to see all sides of a question. Not from him, as from Wilson, will be heard any declaration that he will hang business men "high as Haman" if they do not agree with him.

BECAUSE he is a man of forward vision, of practicability and firmness, not a mere rhetorician and theorist.
BECAUSE he stands for the protection of American lives and property abroad as well as at home.
BECAUSE through him the whole nation will be in the Government. It will not be ruled by one section, nor by one man.
BECAUSE he is for an effective, not an unsound and sham system of rural credits to help the farmer and for a wise conservation of natural resources.
BECAUSE he is for a Federal workingmen's compensation law suitable for the employees of the Government, and those employees engaged in interstate commerce and subject to the hazard of injury.
BECAUSE he favors investigating before legislating.

Reasons Why Wilson Should Be Defeated

BECAUSE, to cite Representative Fitzgerald, Democratic Chairman of the Appropriations Committee of the House, during his administration the Democratic Congress has been the most extravagant that has ever met in the capital.
BECAUSE he insists on his shipping bill—an indefensible piece of folly which would destroy such merchant marine as we now have.
BECAUSE, although he says "he kept us out of war," the story of Mexico, San Domingo and Hayti refutes him.
BECAUSE he runs anti-climaxes. He marches in only to march out again.
BECAUSE he signed the seamen's bill, which practically has wiped out shipping on the Pacific Coast.
BECAUSE he attempted to settle from the Philippines and was defeated only by twenty patriotic Democrats who voted with the Republicans of the House.
BECAUSE he appointed as Secretary of State William J. Bryan after denouncing him as a pest who should be "knocked into a cocked hat."
BECAUSE he made possible Villa, murderer of men and despoiler of women, and Carranza, the fatuous and futile "First Chief."
BECAUSE Wilson's text book statesmanship and grape-juice diplomacy have made the United States an international laughing stock.
BECAUSE he appointed "deserving Democrats" to the diplomatic corps, displacing experienced men at a time when it was essential to the foreign trade and honor of the United States to retain competent, experienced men.
BECAUSE he is incompetent to lead, and veers like a weather vane whenever a zephyr of public opinion seems to blow against him.
BECAUSE his "one-track mind" has too many turn-tables.
BECAUSE he lifted the embargo of arms so that the Mexican desperados have used American ammunition to murder American soldiers and civilians.
BECAUSE the promised "pitiless publicity" has been replaced by private, special, secret negotiations by personal agents and representatives appointed by President Wilson without "the advice and consent of the Senate."
BECAUSE he reverses himself so rapidly that the entire country is seasick from the motion.
BECAUSE he is for free trade, direct taxes and an empty treasury—the same old Democratic trinity.
BECAUSE because the Payne-Aldrich law had been in operation in the last nine months of 1915 we would have collected $91,656,161 more than we did under the Underwood law. It would have met the treasury deficits and have avoided war taxes. The foreign selling in our market got the entire benefit of the $91,656,161.
BECAUSE during the first ten months of the Wilson-Underwood law there were more unemployed being fed by charity than during any ten months in our history, excepting under the Wilson-Gorman act.

BECAUSE of his inconsistency on the immigration bill. In his "History of the American People," vol. 5, p. 213, he wrote: "The Chinese were more to be desired as workmen, if not as citizens, than most of the coarse crew that came crowding in every year at the Eastern ports."
BECAUSE he has not reduced, as he promised, the high cost of living, but has actually made it higher.
BECAUSE he was pledged to a single term by the Baltimore convention, but before the time was cold he was building up his fences for another.
BECAUSE, although posing as an advocate of civil service, every act of his as President in connection with civil service has been adverse to its principles, obstructive and destructive of its bona fide practice.

A Spanish family of seven persons boasts 164 fingers, five members having twelve on each hand, while another has twenty-three and the other twenty-one.

FINNEGAN'S PHILOSOPHY

Pitiless Publicity.

"I see Mr. Hughes wud like to know what's to come to 'Pitiless Publicity.' Mself could tell him, 'Where's 'Pitiless Publicity?'" says Hughes. "In the Ash Can," says I. "T'was all right on the stump, but in Washington 'tis differ. The Harp that want through Trenton's balls—I mane Tumtum. While he bursts into song now he picks his chune!

"Tis not that Prisidint Wilson is less public than Caudydate Wilson—He's less pitiless. 'Tis like the showman. He tells ye all, an' more, about th' illyant, but he has minal resvashun about the spotted baby.

"So it is wid Wilson. He's sof'ned the hard heart iv 'Pitiless Publicity.' How about the Postmasters? axes the refrauners. 'We'll never tell ye,' says the C'mission. 'For why?' says the League. "T'will embrass th' Administrashun," says the C'mission. And the people laughs. 'Ye fired th' lid in the Census,' says Hughes. 'Ye lie,' says Redfield. "He raynsed wid-out bein' axed," says he. 'Ye lie yerself,' says Durand. 'Ye towld me ye'd fire me, an' ye giv me place to a n' pol'tician,' says Durand. 'Ixact'y what I said,' yell' Plak Whiskers. 'I was goin' to fire ye anyway, but I never axed ye to raynse,' says Linky. 'An' the people roars.'

"Tell us about all thim Dishurvin' Dimmyerats," says the people. An' Washington is swep' be a storm iv sllence. "But don't ye think there's no publicity at all. Teddy himself was none gushy with the papers, but he cud be quiet, too.

"We'll grab some land in Vinzueley," says the Ambassyture. "temp'arily," says he. "Ye'll never," says Teddy, "ye'll agree to arbitrate," says he, "or," he says, "in the days Dewey'll be there," says Teddy.

"Me Ry'e Masther will never contint," says th' other. "Thata," says Teddy, "I'll sind Dewey at wanst. There's no use waitin'," says Teddy. "Howid 'em," says the Ambassyture. "We agree," says he, "in a divil a bit did we know how it was for a dozen year. 'We'll have Ferdy Carey alive, or the Bushi Bazook dead,' says Teddy, an' back comes Ferdy. An' the papers says 'On demand is the State Department Ferdy Carey has been released.' An' that's all.

"How is it now? The greasers slaughtered twinty at Santy Isabel. Another Mexican Crisis," says the headlines, "Twenty Americans killed," they says. "The Prisidint Calm," says they. "Ate Bacon and Eggs. Plays GOLF," says the headlines. An' the paper goes on:

"The Prisidint's uppity at breakfast was good, th' lender iv the mushin gettin' outside iv grape fruit, bacon an' eggs, hot biscuit an' coffee. While Doctor Grayson announced the bill iv fare the tinshun over Mexico was much relieved.

"The Prisidint is solvin' in privacy the fateful question, 'Will me threat last?' The answer is waited wid feverish anxiety."

"Mondah, the papers says 'Nashin' al Disaster! Sore Throat Fered, Panic at the Capitol. The Prisidint Calm." "Controversy was spread among all classes today be the report that the Prisidint awoke with a sore throat. Strong men fainted before they could reach the nearest saloon. There is talk iv appintin' a day iv prayer. It is hoped that Senor Arre-ye-on-though will claim that the dead Americans raynsidt lexion. A high authority states that this will end the crisis. The Prisidint made but wan remark: 'Av they'd not been there they'd not been killt.'

"Chooosand, they says, 'Hope revives. No sore throat. Bitten by insect. Prisidint calm. All Phrases iv Mutter to be considered.'

"The anxiety in the Capitol was relieved today be the followin' bulletin: "'The Prisidint has a slight perforation in the cuticle over the inferno maximum caused by a insect bitin' him while sleepin'. The patient was too proud to scratch. (Signed) Grayson."

"It is reported also that General Scott will go to the border to bury the dead, and apologize to the insurgents. He will axe Carranza, whether he would accept a lous if offered. This is considered the thre'e s'lution iv the difficulty."

"Wlasdah the Prisidint goes motorin', Thursdah he writes a note and General Scott starts for the border. Fridah the headlines says 'Pence in Europe near. Prisidint studyin' terms. Will he stop the war? Another note expected. Capitol excited over report."

"But we're comforted be belin' towld the Prisidint wud not be betrayed into hasty ackshun."

"Sundah, he's considerin' th' Armenian question, an' Mondah he advises Grandmothers about suckin' eggs. And another crisis is past."

"So it goes ivry day. As I was sayin', there's n'plenty publicity, but 'is not the brand iv 1012."

THIS'LL HELP CHARLES!

St. Louis, November 2—The entire strength of two Illinois families, representing 45 voters, will be cast for Charles E. Hughes next Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Oswald, of Alton, Ill., said the 18 votes in his family would be cast for Hughes.

In obedience to an order of the Mason County Court, entered at the September term, 1916, notice is hereby given that an election will be held and poll taken in Mason county, Kentucky, at the usual and regular voting places in each of the precincts on TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1916.

Between the hours of 6 o'clock, a. m. and 4 o'clock, p. m., on said date, at which election all legal voters residing in said precincts, shall be given an opportunity to vote by secret ballot on the question whether the Fiscal Court of Mason county shall be composed of three Commissioners to be elected from the county at large, and the Judge of the County Court.

The order calling said election specifying its purpose and directing the manner in which same shall be held, is as follows:

MASON COUNTY COURT.

September Term, September 4, 1916.

Alfred M. Peed, et al., On Petition.

ORDER

This day came Alfred M. Peed and others and filed a written petition signed by eight hundred and forty-one of the legal voters of Mason county, requesting the Judge of the Mason County Court to submit to the qualified voters of Mason county at the next general election hereafter to be held the question, "whether the Fiscal Court of Mason county shall be composed of three Commissioners, to be elected from the county at large, and the Judge of the County Court," and it appears that said petition is signed by more than three hundred and fifty of the legal voters of Mason county, and the court being advised, it is therefore ordered and directed that the officers of the election in all the voting precincts in Mason county shall open a poll and take the sense of the legal voters in said county upon said question, said election to be held on Tuesday, November 7th, 1916, between the hours of 6 a. m. and 4 p. m. The Clerk of the Mason County Court shall furnish the Sheriff of Mason county a copy of this order, and said Sheriff shall cause the same to be published in all the county papers not less than four weeks previous to said election and he shall also advertise the same by printed handbills, posted up less than two weeks before said election in a conspicuous place in each of the voting precincts in said county. It is further ordered and directed that the Clerk of the Mason County Court shall prepare ballots to be used at said election, each ballot to have printed thereon the question:

"ARE YOU IN FAVOR OF THE FISCAL COURT OF THE COUNTY BEING COMPOSED OF THREE COMMISSIONERS TO BE ELECTED FROM THE COUNTY AT LARGE AND THE JUDGE OF THE COUNTY COURT?"

Given under my hand, at my office, in the City of Maysville, Mason county, Kentucky, this 30th day of September, 1916.

JOHN M. CLARKE,
Sheriff of Mason County.

THINKS SPIRIT OF '76 AS SUPINE AS IN '16

Wilson's "Chocolate Soldier" Secretary of War Excites Nation's Disgust by Declaring Washington's Army Was as Bad a Lot as Villa's Bandit Band.

SPOILATION OF NUNS AND CHURCHES THUS CONDONED

"In Their Ragged Regiments Stood the Old Continentals, Yielding Not," said This is the Reason Baker Sneers at Real Patriots Because He Basks in an Environment That Glories in Yielding Every American Right—Also Takes a Fling at Civil War Heroes, Saying They Committed the Same Crimes of Which Mexican Outlaws Are Now Guilty.

The defense which Secretary of War Newton D. Baker offered for Mr. Wilson's Mexican policies found quick response from patriotic Americans—but hardly the response Mr. Baker could have wished for.

In a speech in Jersey City, the Secretary likened the Mexican revolutionists to the Contingents who fought with Washington. He admitted the Mexicans were a rascally lot, but said their actions were those of all rebels. The patriots of the American Revolution looted churches and drove ministers from them on their famous march to Valley Forge, he added.

Protest have come from far and near. The Empire State Society of the Sons of the American Revolution met and adopted a resolution condemning "in the strongest terms the unpatriotic language of the Secretary of War." Members of the society were outspoken in their denunciation. Some declared that unless his remarks were repudiated at once by President Wilson a movement should be started to force the Secretary's resignation.

Friend of Baker's Joins. The Empire State Society meeting was in the Waldorf-Astoria. In the chair was Louis Annin Ames, president of the society, a Democrat, a staunch supporter of the Administration and a close friend of Secretary Baker. He was asked if he had any personal comment to make on the action of the head of the War Department.

"It is all told in the resolution," said Mr. Ames. "The resolution was passed unanimously, so it embodies my views."

The resolution follows: "Whereas, it is reported in The New York Tribune this morning that Secretary of War Baker, at a public meeting held in Jersey City last night, used the following language reflecting upon the character of the members of Washington's army at Valley Forge, and likened them to the present Mexican revolutionists:

"I know that the Mexicans do not respect American life and property," said Mr. Baker. "I know that they do not pay their debts, that they are vagabonds, that they desecrate church property, that their money is no good and that they are generally worthless. But people never respect those things in revolutions. We did not respect them in our Civil War. Washington's soldiers in the march to Valley Forge stole everything they could lay their hands on; took the silver vessels out of the churches and sold them to buy drink. They drove ministers out of the churches. Their money was worthless and they were just as bad characters as the Mexicans."

"Resolved, That we, the descendants of the patriots of the Revolution, condemn in strongest terms the unpatriotic language of the Secretary of War, and direct that a copy of this preamble and resolution be sent to him."

Similar action will be taken by patriotic societies all over the country.

INDUSTRIAL PARALYSIS IF WILSON IS ELECTED, SAYS HARDING

Mansfield, Ohio, November 2—With big political meeting here the Republicans campaign in Richland county was brought to a close tonight. Senator Warren G. Harding was the leading speaker. Owing to the illness of Myron T. Herrick former Attorney-General Wade H. Ells took his place. Judge E. L. Porterfield, congressional candidate, also spoke.

Senator Harding said industrial paralysis would descend upon the country with the re-election of President Wilson and that if prosperity were to continue at the close of the European war, the Republican President and Congress must be elected.

"No man is fit for public service who is not honestly the friend of labor," said Senator Harding. "I believe in the eight-hour day and practice it."

"Real Americanism protects United States citizens. The Administration has wobbled, waddled and waited until Americans have been subjected to the contempt of the Mexicans and the derision of the world," said Wade H. Ells.

Given under my hand, at my office, in the City of Maysville, Mason county, Kentucky, this 30th day of September, 1916.

CHANGES IN NEW YORK

At Eleventh Hour--Hughes to Spend Last Day of Campaign Speaking, Not Resting.

New York, November 3—Charles E. Hughes wound up his 28,000-mile presidential campaign tour with sixteen strenuous hours of campaigning today down the Hudson River Valley and in Brooklyn. The nominee delivered nine speeches, starting at 8:45 o'clock this morning, and did not reach the hotel until midnight tonight.

Tomorrow, the last day of the campaign, was to have been a day of rest with a big rally at Madison Square Garden at night. Instead it will be a whirlwind day of more speaking in New York City. When the nominee arrived here tonight he found that the National Committee had speeded up the campaign so that he will spend virtually the entire afternoon touring the city. Five speeches are on his program.

In almost every speech today and tonight the nominee told his audiences he was confident of victory next Tuesday. He told them that there was little now he could say with regard to the issues of the campaign. On his trip down the Hudson River Valley he made the tariff one of the chief themes of his speeches. Here tonight he spoke chiefly of Americanism.

Visits Land of Royhood

"Let me say to you," he told an audience in Brooklyn, the last he addressed tonight, "that if I am elected President, as I expect to be"—

He got no further for the moment. A man in the gallery yelled:

"You will be."

The entire audience rose and roared its approval of the interruption, waving hundreds of American flags.

"If I am elected President," the nominee continued, "we shall have no American administration with exclusively American policies without any defection to serve any other interests. Supreme must be America's interests in the thoughts of the American people and supreme will be America's interest in administration of my charge."

In his tour through Brooklyn tonight Mr. Hughes campaigned over ground familiar to him as a boy. The first meeting he addressed, in the Green Point section, was within three blocks of the Union Avenue Baptist Church, where his father once was pastor. The streets through which he passed were those on which he had played as a boy, he told the audience, and familiar faces were among those who heard him.

CIRCUS MAY COME HERE

For the Winter if a Desirable Location Can Be Found to House the Big Show—Would Mean Much for Maysville.

Mr. Arthur Donaldson of the Donaldson Lithographing Co., of Newport, Ky., has suggested Maysville as a winter quarters for the Howie Great London Circus and Robinson Famous Shows combination.

The management of the combined companies asks that a suitable location be found that will house all of the animals and various paraphernalia connected with a circus. If such a location can be found the circus will in all probability come to Maysville.

This would mean that a great amount of money would be sent into the channels of trade in this city and besides a large number of men would be employed to help look after the animals. During the winter season the companies spend thousands of dollars in caring for their shows and if Maysville would be fortunate enough to secure the circus for the winter it would mean a great deal for her.

The Klag Daughters of the Episcopal Church will meet on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock with Mrs. Chris Hunsicker and Miss Louise Hunsicker at their home on East Second street.

Vote for Pennington for Congress, if elected he will represent the people.

PAJAMAS

McEvilin, Knox & Diener will change the location of their popular Furniture Store to the Everett Building on East Second Street.

Messrs. McEvilin, Knox and Diener, local furniture dealers and undertakers, will move the location of their store within the next few weeks to the Everett Building on East Second street. The deal was put through by Messrs. Arn and Devine.

The offices of the J. C. Everett & Co. will be removed to the building recently put up by them opposite the High School, within a few days and will allow the furniture men to make some needed improvements in the building before occupation. They expect to be out of the building by next week.

Quite a number of changes will be made in their new location by Messrs. McEvilin, Knox & Diener. The front will be remodeled, a new floor be laid on the ground floor, the walls plastered and the place fixed up generally. They will then continue their business as undertakers. They will begin to move a part of their stock immediately and as soon as their new establishment can be fully fixed up they will move their office and the remainder of the stock.

SILVER RECEPTION A SUCCESS

The Silver Reception held in the First District School building last evening by the Parent-Teacher Association of that building was a decided success. The association took in a neat sum of money which will be used toward the penny lunch that is being operated in that school. Miss Cornelia Jones gave a reading before the audience which was greatly enjoyed. The evening's program consisted of music and readings.
